

OMNIRROC®

Limited Warranty

OMNIROC is warranted not to crack, spall, or degrade for a period of ten years from the purchase date, when used in accordance with the manufacturers Installation Guidelines and the Transportation, Storage and Handling Guide.

This limited warranty is non-transferable and applies only if OMNIROC is stored and installed in accordance with the manufacturer's published guidelines following good construction practice.

The manufacturer, at its option, shall either replace any OMNIROC that is found to be defective or refund the original purchase price.
